Jeff,

Thank you for the update. We consent to requesting a three-week adjournment to March 13, 2025. We will file a letter with the court today making this request.

Thank you,
Esti

Hi Elizabeth,

Thank you for your email. We are working on the production of responsive materials and should have it to you no later than midday tomorrow. I think it does make sense to go ahead and ask for an adjournment at this time, to give you sufficient time to review the production. Perhaps three weeks, to ensure you have enough time to review and for us to sort out any remaining issues afterwards?

By the way, Josh, you were in the class above me at NYU Law. Hope all is well!

Best,
Jeff

Jeremy,

I write to follow up on our agreement from February 5 that you would review and produce the materials Mr. Scavino produced to the grand jury by this Thursday, February 20. Please advise when we can expect to receive this production. As you requested, we had the Court adjourn our pre-motion conference to February 20 to give time for you to make this production. If we get the production promptly, we would be willing to agree to another adjournment to give us time to review the production. We're available to meet and confer if helpful.

Thanks,

Elizabeth
